Eligibility: the Photo Contest is open to NALS members as well as non-members.

Scope: All photos must feature members of the genus Lilium. Photos may be of a single lily flower or multiple flowers, a single lily plant, or multiple plants grouped in a flower bed, a vase or similar arrangement. Close-ups are acceptable where the photo clearly depicts the subject as a member of the genus Lilium.

Out of scope: The focus of the photos is lilies. Please note that classes indicate where people, animals, insects, or other subjects/objects are allowed as part of the image. Otherwise, the photo's main focus should be lilies.

Two entry divisions:

Division A Classes

Class 1 Close up – Beauty is in the details – fill the frame

Class 2 Abstraction – An open invitation for any interpretation

- Class 3 Grand Vista - Any landscape or garden featuring lilies
- Class 4 Companions and Pollinators – Your opportunity to include butterflies, bees, insects and human companions
- Class 5 My Favourite Lily/Lilies – Your choice
- Class 6 Show Time – Photos of National or Regional Symposiums and Shows
- Class 7 Companions – Show us your companion plantings with lilies

B. Exhibition Division: Open to all photographers and previously entered photographs.
There is no limit on the number of entries per entrant in this Division.
